IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAY

CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CIVIL REVISION APPLICATION NO. 80 of 2005

Darshan Dev Duggal .. Petitioner

versus

M/s.Sun Pharmaceutical Inds.Ltd. .. Respondents

...

Petitioner present in person.

CORAM : B.H. MARLAPALLE,J

DATED : 14th September 2005.

P.C.:

1. Heard the petitioner party in person. He had challenged the order dated 24th March 2005 passed in his favour restoring the S.C. Suit no.2520 of 2002 to the file by setting aside the order of dismissal for default passed on 3rd November 2004. The petitioner is aggrieved more particularly to the portion reading as under in the said order

"the ad-interim relief granted in the original motion is directed to continue until further orders as per the roznama dated 12th March 2004."

2. The applicant states that when the suit itself was dismissed on 3.2.2004, there was no occasion for the trial court to write the roznama on 12th March 2004.. The Civil Revision Application cannot be entertained against such a grievance and he may approach the very same Court for corrections in the order.

3. Revision Application is therefore rejected as not maintainable.

B.H. MARLAPALLE, J